New Delhi, dated, the 9th September, 2008.

Sub: Contribution towards Bihar flood victims.

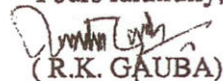

Madam,

As you are aware, floods in Bihar have caused unprecedented havoc with life and property. As concerned citizens, we have some responsibility to mitigate the misery of the victims of flood. Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Hon'ble Judges of this court have resolved to contribute towards the flood relief measures.

I am directed to say that District Judiciary of Delhi should also rise to the occasion and make generous contributions. It has been suggested that the officers of Higher Judicial Service may contribute Rs.2000/- or more and the officers of DJS Rs.1000/- or more.

You are requested to appropriately inform and kindly collect the contributions from willing members of the District Judiciary in the form of cheques drawn in favour of "Chief Minister Relief Fund, Patna, Bihar". The cheques collected along with a list of the officers contributing may be sent to the office of Registrar General, Delhi High Court within three days so that the cheques of contributions along with the contributions from the Registry and Hon'ble Judges can be delivered at the office of Resident Commissioner, Bihar at New Delhi immediately. Needless to say, the contribution towards the relief qualifies for exemption for the purpose of Income Tax.

Yours faithfully,

(R.K. GAUBA)
